7 VICTOR TAGLE,

Case No. 2:16-cv-00757-JCM-PAL

8 Plaintiff,

ORDER

9 v.

(Mot. Ext. Time – ECF No. 68)

10 MICHAEL ANDERSON, et al.,

11 Defendants.

12 This matter is before the court on plaintiff Victor Tagle’s Motion to Extend Time (ECF
13 No. 68), filed June 18, 2018.¹ This motion is referred to the undersigned pursuant to 28 U.S.C.
14 § 636(b)(1)(A) and LR IB 1-3 of the Local Rules of Practice. The court has considered the motion
15 and defendants’ Limited Opposition (ECF No. 69). No reply was filed and the deadline to do so 16 has now expired.

17 The motion requests an extension of the Scheduling Order (ECF No. 47) entered April 13,
18 2018. The scheduling order set July 11, 2018, as the deadline for discovery to be completed.
19 Defendants’ limited opposition indicates they have no objection to “a reasonable extension of 20 discovery for thirty (30) days.” Mr. Tagle, is incarcerated and timely filed his request to extend 21 the discovery deadline. However, given the volume of cases the court has and the amount of time
22 it has taken to address the motion, a thirty-day extension is not realistic.

23 Having considered the motion, and for good cause appearing,

26 ¹ Most of Tagle’s hand-written motion is not sufficiently legible to enable the court or any opposing party
27 to fully understand it. Mr. Tagle is advised that the court accepts handwritten pleadings or documents, but 28 they must be neatly written to allow the court to easily read and understand the content. See LR IA 10-
1(a)(2) (“Handwriting must be legible....”). Any future illegible or unintelligible filings may be stricken from the court’s docket without prejudice to resubmitting clear and readable filings. See LR IA 10-1(d).
